Programme

Danger and Desire: Norms on gender and sexuality and the prevention of HIV.
Are we doing the right things?

On Friday, November 13th, 2009; 10:00 – 17:00 h at GTZ-Haus Berlin, Reichpietschufer 20, 10785 Berlin

Moderation: Anna von Roenne

09:00 Registration and welcome coffee
09:55 Brief introduction to conference goals and programme
   Anna von Roenne, Moderator
10:00 The German contribution to a gender-sensitive and gender transformative global response to HIV
   Dr. Jochen Böhmer, Division Education, Health, Population, Federal Ministry for Economic Cooperation and Development
10:15 Current developments in the international debate on gender and HIV
   Kristan Schoultz, UNAIDS, Global Coalition on Women and AIDS
   Why has the Global Fund developed a strategy on Sexual Orientation and Gender Identities?
   Andy Seale, the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria
10:50 Multiple concurrent and cross-generational relationships in Malawi
   Dr. Tiwonge Loga, Southern African AIDS Trust, Malawi
11:20 HIV prevention with sexual minorities in the Caribbean
   Dr. John Waters, Centro de Orientacion e Investigacion Integral (COIN), Dominican Republic
11:50 Condoms, Carnival, and Concurrent Partnerships: working with gender and sexuality in Caribbean Social Marketing programmes
   Dr. Joanne Hemmings, Options Consultancy Services
12:20 Discussion
12:50 Lunch Break
13:50 Introduction to the World Café Method
14:00 2 Working Groups (4-5 groups each)
   1. Dangerous Desires: Multiple concurrent and cross-generational sexual relationships – what do we know, which approaches exist and how could (German) Development Cooperation become active?
   2. Men having sex with men and other sexual minorities: How can programmes be planned to reach them and to fight stigma?
15:30 Break
16:00 Presentation of Working Group Results and Discussion
16:30 Conclusions and Outlook
   Long term concurrent partnerships and the spread of HIV in Africa: Gender implications
   Dr. Helen Epstein, Author of “The Invisible Cure”